

JAMDAGNI PUBLIC SCHOOL

ROLE PLAY OF HISTORICAL CHARACTER A REPORT

Competitions are necessary to move a person forward, to do something different from others, to achieve goals and to assess oneself. This is the reason why competition is necessary in every field. It allows individuals to understand their abilities and competence. Keeping this in mind, inter-house competitions were organized in Jamdagni Public School on 09-10-2024. In which different competitions were fixed for all classes. Competitions to play Historical Characters were held for the children of class 7 and 8. One student had been selected from each section of the classes. All the children participated enthusiastically in these competitions and introduced their amazing skills and talents.

Objective- The objective of all the competitions was to remove the hesitation of the children so that they are able to present their abilities in front of others.

Result- At the end of the competition, the Principal of the school, Mrs. Meenu Sharma and Vice Principal Mr. Amit Kumar declared the result.
